

NEW TRAVEL REGULATIONS EFFECTIVE 10/5/15

GENERAL/MISCELLANEOUS

- University will not reimburse for travel expenses after 90 days from return trip date.
- Any travel related purchase that is not in accordance within travel policy will be deemed unauthorized and will not be reimbursed.
- All expenses must be reflected on Travel Expense Report (TER) including pre-paid expenses to create full picture view of trip for auditors
- Passports will no longer be reimbursed

Meals & Incidentals

- Pay Meal & Incidentals (M&IE) as a daily per diem allowance based on federal rates for individual travelers based on city you spend the night in. Per diem only allowed for full/24 hours of travel
- 75 percent of the daily allowance on 1st/last days of travel
- Travelers must deduct any provided meals from the daily per diem allowance (20% Breakfast, 30% Lunch, 50% Dinner)
- No leave/return times are required
- No receipts required
- Same day, tax reportable meal allowance of $15 for day trippers without overnight stay when expected to incur out of pocket costs. No same day trip allowance paid if traveler receives any provided meals.

Meals & Incidentals

- Incidentals are defined as follows:
  - Fees and tips
  - Laundry
  - Dry cleaning and pressing of clothing
  - Bottled water for foreign locations
  - Transportation between place of lodging or business to obtain meals when not obtainable within the immediate vicinity.

Lodging

- Rates for single/standard lodging will be paid/reimbursed for the location and dates of stay.
  - In-State Maximum federal rate (excludes tax and travelers responsible for obtaining tax exemption)
  - Out of state Maximum will be at 125% of federal rate.
     (Maximum rate excludes tax)
  - International Maximum federal rates (includes Alaska, Hawaii, US Territories). Maximum rate includes tax.
  - Externally sponsored conferences Conference site hotel now includes any conference recommended lodging options and will be reimbursed at actual cost.
  - Internally sponsored (University) conferences Maximum federal rate based on location

Lodging (cont'd)

- Current policy prohibits the use of online lodging brokers, like Airbnb and the more familiar Hotels.com, Expedia, Priceline, Travelocity, etc. and will no longer be reimbursed
- Maximum reimbursement rate is based on the city you spend the night in and is calculated via the rate calculator.
- Conference site hotels can be utilized over the high cost city maximum – proof of conference site is required and department approval needed

LODGING BOOKING METHODS

Booking methods allowed:

- Online with Concur booking tool
- Fox Travel agents
- Directly with hotel property
- Conference site or recommended conference site hotels

SPONSORED EVENTS

- Food & beverage costs related to hosting candidates or recruits are part of this policy and rate structure as well as receipt and other documentation requirements.
- Faculty & staff that elect to pay for group/team meals during the course of travel or for other identified business purposes are to follow the rate maximums and receipting requirements of this policy.
- An individual traveler's personal meal & incidental expense (M&IE) per diem allowance cannot be used to pay for items related to University Sponsored Events or any other related business entertainment activity that includes meals, food or beverages whether the expense is incurred in travel status or at the headquarter location.
- Travelers cannot claim M&IE on the behalf of another person. (i.e. coworker)

Sponsored Event Rates

Single Day Rates

DAY TRIP MEAL ALLOWANCE

Based on the preliminary questions you answered above, you do not qualify for the day trip meal allowance.

Day trips that do not require an overnight stay are not eligible for a M&IE per diem allowance. By University policy, those travelers that incur meal expenses for a day trip will be reimbursed a flat $15 per day regardless of leave/return times. The $15 is tax reportable to the traveler and no receipts are required.

Travelers that do not incur out-of-pocket costs or have any meals provided for their day trip travel are not eligible to receive any meal reimbursement, including the day trip allowance.
