

UW OSHKOSH COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

HUMAN RESOURCES

Human Resource majors help organizations manage employees. Students learn to recruit employees, develop training programs, manage pay systems and benefit plans, motivate desired behaviors and help set strategic direction. Human resource managers are at the heart of dynamic events and changes such as mergers, downsizing, entering international business and adopting quality management processes.

UW Oshkosh Human Resources Facts

- Our job placement rate is 92% upon graduation
- 31% of our graduates find their first full-time job through their required internship
- Our HR curriculum is aligned with the Society for Human Resource Management guidelines which allows our students the ability to apply to take the SHRM-CP exam while still in school

Human Resources Classes

- HR Staffing and Planning
- Training and Development
- Benefits Administration
- Managing Change
- Employee Relations
- HR Information and Metrics
- Occupational Safety and Health
- Compensation Management

Characteristics

- Organized
- Multi-tasker
- Problem-Solver
- Trustworthy
- Impartial
- Self-Disciplined
- Detail-oriented

Common Job Titles

- Benefits Specialist
- Employee Relations Manager
- Recruiter
- Human Resources Analyst
- Human Resources Generalist
- Human Resources Manager
- Payroll Processing Specialist
- Safety Compliance Specialist
- Talent Acquisition Coordinator
- Training Specialist

UWO UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
OSHKOSH

College of Business

Annual Starting Salary

Regional: $40,754

National: $47,571

Average Hourly

Intern Wage: $14.93

Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM)

UWO SHRM is the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh's student chapter of the National Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM). SHRM is the world's largest association dedicated to Human Resources Management with over 170,000 professional members and 55,000 student members. We are proud to be affiliated with SHRM and sponsored by the local Fox Valley and Oshkosh Area Chapters of SHRM.

Alliance for Diverse Professionals (ADP)

The mission of the Alliance for Diverse Professionals (ADP) is to serve and lead the College of Business, the University, and the Fox Valley Business Community in diversity management excellence by developing students' diversity philosophies and management skills and by welcoming, including, and celebrating underrepresented groups on campus and in our community.

Featured Employers

