Men’s Health & Wellness Conference: Holistic Perspectives on Men’s Health
Call for Abstracts

The University of Wisconsin Oshkosh College of Nursing is accepting submissions for oral and poster presentations for its first conference on men’s health. UWO CON is seeking submissions from nursing and other disciplines. Submissions can be focused on research, quality improvement or clinical activities.

Submissions should address one or more of the following conference objectives:
1. Empowering men to take ownership of their health.
2. Holistic nature of men’s health.
3. Role of nursing in men’s health.
4. Interdisciplinary professional collaborations to promote men’s health.

Required Format
1. Title
2. Problem or Research Question
3. Methods/Design
4. Findings

The required length of the abstract is 250-500 words submitted on a one-page, single-spaced typed page, 8.5 x 11” paper with a one-inch margin on all sides, and must include at least one conference objective. Submissions must include a cover sheet with the title of the abstract, name(s) of author(s), address, and contact telephone number and e-mail address. Do not include bibliographies or articles with the submission. Please indicate your preference for a Podium or Poster presentation at the top of the response. All abstracts are subject to a blind review process and candidates will be notified by email whether or not they have been accepted. Following acceptance, paperwork for continuing education credits will be sent to each presenter to complete. Presenters are required to register and pay conference fees. Poster presenters will receive poster guidelines with notification of acceptance.

Abstracts are due by the end of business day on Friday, January 20, 2017. Please email your abstracts to conmenshealth@uwosh.edu. Please watch our web site for conference details at http://con.uwosh.edu/mens-health-conference.
