

UWO FOX CITIES CAMPUS

uwosh.edu/fox

At the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh, Fox Cities campus, you will be supported, guided and encouraged to explore new ideas, skills and concepts that will shape you into the person you are meant to be. With the outstanding professors, dedicated advisors and the top-notch resources of a comprehensive university, the Fox Cities campus offers a world of opportunities close to home.

We don't just talk about the importance of a student-centered campus; we live it every day. Our mission is your success, and we carry this out by offering small class sizes and individualized support to create an environment where you can grow and thrive.

STAY NEAR, GO FAR

Nearly half of our students are the first in their family to attend college—and that's a pretty big deal. People from all backgrounds gather in our classrooms to learn from one another and build each other up, and that's what makes our campus stand tall.

The Fox Cities campus is one of three campuses that make up UW Oshkosh. By starting here, you will benefit by saving thousands of dollars in tuition as you work toward an Associate of Arts and Science degree or declare a major and transfer to a four-year university. Some students arrive with a clear idea of what they want to study, while others choose to figure it out as they go. No matter where you are headed, we will help you every step of the way.

There's no limit to what you can achieve, and that's why your best start is at the Fox Cities campus of UW Oshkosh.

START HERE, STAY HERE, TRANSFER ANYWHERE

At the Fox Cities campus, you can earn the foundational credits needed for a bachelor's degree at a location that's close to home and affordable. Our campus has a skilled team of academic advisors to help you establish education and career goals and chart a path to achieve them. You will have the flexibility to transfer to a four-year university and declare a major whenever you feel ready to do so, or you can earn an associate degree before continuing your studies in a bachelor's degree program elsewhere.

CAMPUS LIFE

uwo.sh/fox-life

Ask any UWO student, and they'll tell you that getting involved in clubs and activities started one of the best chapters of their life. With a variety of activities ranging from student government to performing arts, competitive sports to computer science, exploring new interests and getting involved not only strengthens your resume—it enhances your college experience.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

uwo.sh/fox-tutors

From the moment you step foot on the Fox Cities campus, you will be supported across all areas of your college education. Beyond our dedicated professors and expert advisors, we offer free peer-to-peer tutoring for most intro-level courses with specialized resources in math and writing.

CAREER AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

uwosh.edu/career

We make a point at UWO to equip our students with the skills they need to land the career of their dreams. The Career & Professional Development office offers everything you need to be successful in a professional setting, including resume help, industry advising, mock interviews, career fairs and the Career Closet, where students have access to professional clothing—to keep—at no cost.

STUDENT HOUSING

uwo.sh/fox-village

Though many students commute to campus, there is an on-campus housing option available for those who want the college living experience. The Fox Village is a privately managed apartment complex for students to live independently in a supportive environment. With shared amenities and resident events, this housing option fosters academic achievement and interpersonal connections.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY AND INCLUSION

uwo.sh/the-intersection

The Intersection is a supportive, inviting space on campus where students and staff are inspired to co-create an inclusive community. The space features a lounge and study area, kitchenette, social justice-themed games and information on campus and community resources. The Intersection hosts educational trainings and discussions—open to everyone on campus—to put diversity, equity and inclusion into action.
