

What will camp be like?

Our daily schedule will include time for:

- Free writing
- Developing writing stamina and skills within different types of writing
- Incorporating our lives and environment into writing
- Sharing ideas as readers and writers
- Receiving feedback to help improve writing
- Exploring how authors develop their craft
- Celebrating progress as writers

For more information, please contact us using the email addresses found on the staff information page.

The Fox Valley Writing Project at UW-Oshkosh, dedicated to the improvement of writing instruction and students' writing skills, has been training teachers to advance writing instruction for over 25 years. Each Academy's dedicated writing instructors are teachers who have participated in the Fox Valley Writing Project.

Staff Notes

Amy Nelson is currently a literacy resource teacher for the Menasha Joint School District. Her 18 years of teaching experience ranges from kindergarten through 10th grade. She has also been involved with UWO and the Fox Valley Writing Project. Amy loves working with young writers to develop their skills and love for writing.
