The University Honors Program at UW Oshkosh is pleased to announce that fourteen seniors are completing their Honors Thesis projects this December. As you can see from the majors represented, each session promises an interesting mix of subjects. The presenters have spent at least two semesters planning and completing this final, defining Honors requirement, and we welcome you to attend as many of the presentations as you like, enjoy refreshments, and take part in the Q&A! The students will present their work on the following dates:

Honors Thesis Symposium I

Monday, December 7

Reeve 306
4:00-5:30

- Lauren LaDell “The ‘Means and Meanings’ of Reprimands Following Mistakes: Coach-Athlete Interactions in an Intercollegiate Football Team”
  Advisor: Dr. Danielle Kvam, Department of Communication, College of Letters and Science

- Cassie Limberg and Jacqueline Wnuk “Cyber Professionalism: When Students and Social Media Collide”
  Advisor: Dr. Suzanne Marnocha, College of Nursing

- Annie Hackbarth “Anthropomorphic Effects of Different Rock-Climbing Styles”
  Advisor: Dr. Dan Schmidt, Department of Kinesiology, College of Letters and Science

~Break~

6:00-7:00

- Maame Coleman “The Role of Task Difficulty, Escape Possibility, and Similarity in the Empathy Altruism Hypothesis”
  Advisor: Dr. David Lishner, Department of Psychology, College of Letters and Science

- Rachel Russell “Education of Women Prior to Elective Labor Induction”
  Advisor: Ms. Sarah Olson, College of Nursing

Honors Thesis Symposium II

Tuesday, December 8

Reeve 306
4:00-5:30

- Alexander Johnson “The Effects of Analytical Thinking on Misinformation Susceptibility”
  Advisor: Dr. Quin Chrobak, Department of Psychology, College of Letters and Science

- Amber Wilkinson “Friendship and Conflict Management in Roommate Dyads”
  Advisor: Dr. Christy Brazee, Department of Communication, College of Letters and Science

- Ross Gordon “The Counterintuitive Spread of Early Christianity”
  Advisor: Dr. Kim Rivers, Department of History, College of Letters and Science

~ Break ~

6:00-6:30

- Amanda Roberts “Memory on Display: Museum-Based Applications of Roberts’s Six Categories of Memory”
  Advisor: Dr. Kim Rivers, Department of History, College of Letters and Science

Honors Thesis Symposium III

Wednesday, December 9

Reeve 306
4:00-5:00

- Nicole Banks “Public Defenders in the United States: Do They Have an Effect on a Defendant’s Sixth Amendment Rights?”
  Advisor: Dr. David Jones, Department of Criminal Justice, College of Letters and Science

- Kassandra Sprecher “Sustainability in Higher Education: A Focus on Residence Halls and Programming”
  Advisor: Dr. Jim Feldman, Environmental Studies Program, College of Letters and Science

~ Break ~

5:30-6:30

  Advisor: Dr. Teri Shors, Department of Biology, College of Letters and Science

- Ciara Van Gheem “Multiplatform Narrative Storytelling: Creation, Distribution, and Analysis”
  Advisor: Dr. Andrew Smock, Department of Radio-TV-Film, College of Letters and Science