

HONORS / ENG STUDY ABROAD IN.. PARIS

In May-June 2024, the Honors College is offering its Honors Study Abroad exclusively located in Paris, France, and this year we're inviting English majors to join the trip! We'll stay in the beautiful and historic Latin Quarter (so-named because it's an ancient university neighborhood where medieval scholars worked exclusively in Latin). From our exceptional temporary home (next door to the sweeping publicly accessible grounds of the Jardin du Luxembourg), we'll venture out daily to visit the city's most awe-inspiring, significant (historically, architecturally, culturally), and of course famous sites. With its music-filled streets, world-class museums and art galleries, architectural wonders, and...food! 🍷, Paris is at once a captivating destination and the perfect site from which to advance your knowledge of culture, history, art, politics, and philosophy. You'll learn about everything from opera to architecture to graffiti artistry to political history ... to what it means to be a flâneur! And you'll return home enriched by it all.

Satisfying ENG 205, Literature from a Global Perspective, and a 300-level English course (to be determined on a case-by-case basis), this study abroad allows you to complete 6 ENG credits at once! Led by Dr. Pascale Manning and Dr. Stewart Cole, this study abroad marks our 10th trip for UWO and our 5th trip to Paris with students, who have universally recognized their experience in Paris as life-altering.

We hope you'll join us! Interested students should complete Steps 1 and 2 of the application (and thus save a seat) as soon as possible.

HONORS STUDY ABROAD IN..
PARIS

❖ Dr. Stewart Cole (coles@uwosh.edu) &
Dr. Pascale Manning (manningp@uwosh.edu)

your professors →

- ❖ Trip Dates: May 25th to June 11th, 2024.
- ❖ 6 credits (ENG 205 Literature from a Global Perspective – which satisfies both your literature and Global Citizenship requirements and a 300-level ENG majors credit)
- ❖ Why Paris? Not only is Paris perhaps the world’s most desirable tourist destination (see the previous slide!), it also has public health measures in place to ensure that museum visits can be conducted and performances attended in the safest possible way.
- ❖ What if I don’t speak French? That’s okay! The courses are in English, of course, and Paris receives millions of non-French speaking visitors every year. In addition, Dr. Manning speaks French as a first language, while Dr. Cole is also fluent, so they can answer any questions you may have and offer any help you may need.
- ❖ Application deadlines: Steps I and II are due by NOON on Friday February 9, 2024; Step III is due by NOON on Friday February 16, 2024.
- ❖ Photo credits: all photographs on these slides were taken by Dr. Manning or Dr. Cole on previous Honors study abroad programs in Paris, with the exception of the above, which was taken by the talented Sara Allen (an Honors student) in January, 2020!