Note: Contract is for both semesters of the academic year or balance thereof and is considered a legal and binding document.

Introduction: The purpose of this document is to establish the terms and conditions of occupancy in University Residence Halls and participation in a University Dining program (see item 18). This document constitutes an offer by the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh, hereinafter referred to as the University, to contract with the Student hereinafter referred to as the Resident, for housing facilities and dining services. Documents which are incorporated by reference to this contract are the Guide to Residence Hall Living, the Community Rights and Responsibilities Handbook, the University Dining Brochure, the Schedule of Occupancy, and the University Bulletin.

When the Contract is signed that establishes a binding contract between the Resident and the University.

1. Eligibility: Residents must be currently enrolled students at the University or be determined to be otherwise eligible by the Director of Residence Life and Director of University Dining. Eligibility may be extended to students of other University education programs through Board of Regents' approval.

2. Contract Term: This contract is for the entire academic year, which consists of fall and spring semesters, or if entered after the beginning of the academic year, for the remainder of the academic year. Residents who leave school, but again become scheduled for classes during the academic year, are obligated to fulfill the remainder of this contract, including being responsible for room and board charges. Those who already qualify to reside off campus have the option of choosing a semester contract (additional form required).

A Schedule of Occupancy is available on the Department of Residence Life website. This schedule indicates the official opening and closing of the residence halls.

3. University Agreement: The University agrees to furnish to the Resident housing and dining services. These services are provided under the terms and conditions herein stated and as described in the Community Rights and Responsibilities Handbook and the University Dining Brochure. This handbook and brochure are given to each resident when he/she moves into the residence halls.

4. Resident Agreement: The Resident agrees to make payments of all fees specified in the Rates and Payment Section of this agreement and to observe all rules and regulations of the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh. The Resident also agrees to observe all rules and regulations of the Department of Residence Life and the Department of University Dining, which are by reference a part of this contract. The Resident further agrees to honor the terms and conditions stated in this contract.

5. Rates and Payment: The housing and dining rates are determined annually and approved by the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System. The Resident agrees to pay the rates as established and announced in the spring of 2021. Payment will be made in accordance with the University policy on payment of tuition and fees as described in the University Bulletin. Failure to satisfy the financial obligations accrued under this agreement may result in the denial of further meals, eviction, and/or denial of issuance/transfer of grade transcripts and/or enrollment, pursuant to University rules and regulations governing the imposition of these sanctions. Ten dollars (subject to change) of the room rental rate is allocated to the activities of the United Students in Residence Halls.

6. Assignment Policy: The University will not discriminate in room or hall assignments on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, ancestry, disability, age, pregnancy, marital or parental status. The University will attempt to honor, whenever possible, requests for accommodations. The University reserves the right to assign roommates, to change room or hall assignments and/ or to consolidate vacancies by requiring residents to move from one accommodation to another. Failure to honor assignment preferences will not void this contract. The university reserves the right to alter any aspect of this housing contract, without notice, if circumstances warrant.

7. Room Changes: Residents may only change room assignments in Accordance with procedures outlined in the Community Rights and Responsibilities Handbook. Unauthorized room changes may result in the resident being required to move back to his/her authorized assignment, additional costs and/or disciplinary action.

A) If a student's roommate checks out, the remaining student may be sent a letter outlining the Right of First Refusal process. The letter is subject to the availability of housing. If sent, this letter will outline three options for the student:

- (1) The remaining student can rent the room as a single at a pro-rated additional cost.
- (2) The remaining student can have another person move into the room with them.
- (3) The remaining student can consolidate with another person on the floor or within the hall.

The student will have five business days to respond to the letter or the vacant space will be viewed as an assignable space for the Housing Operations area and as such will be assigned when needed.

8. Prepayment: The $150 housing prepayment will be applied to the second semester (Spring, 2022) financial obligation. It is refundable only as outlined under the Refund and Forfeiture Policies Section (Section 10) of this contract.

9. Termination or Cancellation of Contract: By the Resident:

A. If written notice of cancellation is received by the Department of Residence Life personnel prior to the beginning of the term of the contract, the contract will be cancelled subject to Refund and Forfeiture Policies (Section 10).

B. After the term of the contract begins, the Resident may apply to the Department of Residence Life, Director of University Dining or their designee for a contract termination under the following circumstances:

When vacating the room, the Resident agrees to follow established check-out procedures as outlined in the Community Rights and Responsibilities Handbook or as published and distributed, which include removing waste and debris and leaving the room in an acceptable, clean condition, and returning room key(s). Failure to follow established check-out procedures may result in a fee assessment for lock change and improper check-out and damage charges, if any. Any personal property left at the end of the contract term will be removed from the room, if not claimed within 30 days, it will be considered abandoned and disposed of. During such 30-day period, the University officers, employees, and agents shall not be responsible for damage to or theft of the property.

This amount was established based on the past student Titan Dollars usage patterns. The 150 Titan Dollars will be billed to the student account. The 150 Titan Dollars allocation will be available for use the Monday prior to move in for the fall semester, and the Monday prior to the start of classes for the spring semester.
