

department of journalism

university of wisconsin oshkosh

<http://www.uwosh.edu/journalism>

Dec. 2014

Dear Alumni,

It is hard to believe another semester has passed at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh. Our alumni, students, faculty and staff have been busy with their various accomplishments, so I am happy to share some updates with you from this fall. Please follow the links for more information.

Anne \(Angoli\) Enright ('97), Director of Media and Measurement for Starbucks, was honored with the university's Distinguished Alumni Award. During her visit, Anne met with students in a small setting and spoke in an open forum. Every time our wonderful alumni visit students, it reminds them that greatness is in their reach.

One of our students, Charlene Dungan, won the Outstanding Returning Adult Student Award for her impressive work on how families deal with loved ones with post-traumatic stress disorder. Her comprehensive website includes stories, photographs, and videos. The project originated from Charlene's own experiences as a wife of a former soldier battling PTSD.

One of our senior faculty members, Dr. Julie Henderson, received the PRSA Educator of the Year Award. After many years of seeing her accomplished students bring home awards, it is a pleasure to see this long-deserved trophy in her hands.

The department is hosting Mirza Mehmedovic, who taught at the University of Sarajevo, as a visiting Fulbright scholar. He is conducting research, visiting classes and testing the students' geography knowledge.

The department redesigned its information page on supporting our program to make it easier for alumni to support current students through a tax-deductible donation, as well as other department activities. We know we graduate the best students in the state, but many of our students need financial assistance to complete their educations.

And... we'd love to hear what's going on with you. Feel free to get in touch with us.

Have a happy holiday season,

Timothy R. Gleason, Ph.D.
Chair of the Department of Journalism