

Michael J. Skowronski

512 Algoma Blvd, Apt 4, Oshkosh, WI 54901

(715) 584 – 3931

mathtutor524@gmail.com

Objective

To obtain a lecturer position at a post-secondary institution teaching a variety of courses ranging from liberal arts mathematics, teacher education, developmental mathematics, and college algebra

Research Interests

Student achievement in elementary students as it relates to the academic preparation and attitudes of their teachers.

Experience

Mathematics Lecturer - UW-Oshkosh - (September 2003 - Present)

-Taught courses from Developmental Mathematics to Calculus for Business

Graduate Assistantship - UW-Oshkosh – (September 2001 – August 2003)

- Tutor for mathematics courses ranging from Basic Algebra to Calculus for Business

Mathematics Teacher – Waupaca (WI) HS– (September 2000 - June 2001)

- Taught Core Plus Mathematics Course 1 and Calculus

Mathematics Teacher – Gresham (WI) HS - (September 1999 – June 2000)

- Taught courses ranging from 6th Grade Math to Calculus and Computer Programming

Mathematics Teacher – Brimley (MI) HS – (September 1998 – June 1999)
- Taught Applied Mathematics, Functions, Statistics, and Trigonometry, and Physical Science

Mathematics Teacher – Marinette (WI) Catholic Central HS – (September 1993 – June 1995)
- Taught Algebra 1, Geometry, Algebra 2, and Physics

Substitute Teacher – Various Michigan and Wisconsin schools – (September 1992 – June 1994)

Education

University of Wisconsin – Oshkosh (September 2001 – May 2003)
Master of Science – Mathematics Education – May 2003

Michigan Technological University (September 1989 – May 1992)
Bachelor of Science – General Mathematics
Minor – Physical Science

Gogebic CC – Ironwood, Michigan (August 1987 – May 1989)

L.L. Wright HS – Ironwood, Michigan (August 1981 – May 1987)