Trauma and Addictive Behaviors in Youth: Intervention Strategies for Human Service Providers

FRIDAY, JAN. 15, 2021 • 9 A.M.–1 P.M.
VIRTUAL WORKSHOP

Presented by: Courtney Steuer, LCSW, CSAC

This is an educational and case illustrative based workshop for human service providers who want to increase their knowledge of how trauma and addictive behaviors affect an individual's mental, emotional and physical health. Attendees will take away methods and approaches to help their clients with emotion regulation and managing stressors that lead to substance use and/or other maladaptive behaviors.

Understanding Poverty

FRIDAY, JAN. 29, 2021 • 9 A.M.–1 P.M.
VIRTUAL WORKSHOP

Presented by: Al Rolph, MSW, CSW

This workshop will be looking at socioeconomic status through a cultural rather than financial lens. The program activities seek to promote sensitivity to and knowledge about oppression and cultural ethnic diversity.

Ethics & Boundaries for In-Home Services

FRIDAY, FEB. 12, 2021 • 9 A.M.–1 P.M.
VIRTUAL WORKSHOP

Presented by: Jeanne Wagner, MSW, LCSW, ACSW

The management of ethics, boundaries and confidentiality is especially challenging for human service professionals who provide services in the client's living environment, including the client's home, residential programs, emergency shelters, transitional living centers, skilled care facilities, assisted and supported living centers and Hospice facilities. This workshop will address the unique issues encountered during the provision of these in-home services and will provide a framework for ethical decision-making.
