*These Criminal Justice courses have pre-requisites. In most instances if a student has prior coursework in law or political science, Criminal Justice Department instructors will likely waive these pre-requisites for Law & Policy Minors. Students should e-mail the instructor to discuss and request instructor consent.

Students who complete both 321 and 392 may use one of these courses to satisfy the capstone requirement. The other may be counted as an elective from the political science department.
