Wisconsin Voter ID Enrollment and Campus Address Verification Certificate

The University of Wisconsin Oshkosh provides a downloadable certificate to verify enrollment and campus address to meet the requirements of the Wisconsin Voter ID law. The certificate will verify your current enrollment status and your current address with the following priority based on your addresses in the Student Information System. First priority for an address to be printed will be your DORM address. If no current DORM address is found, your LOCAL address will be printed. If no DORM or LOCAL address is found, then your HOME address will be printed. If your address is not correct on the certificate, follow normal address update procedures to correct your address in Titan Web then reprint your certificate.

Voter ID certificates are printed with the following disclaimer:

The information above is taken directly from the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh's Electronic Student Information System as it existed on the issuance date above. By producing and submitting this form, the student whose name appears above accepts responsibility for the accuracy of self-reported address information.
