

If you choose to personalize the content or layout on your Peoplesoft home page, you would do so by choosing Personalize Content or Layout and then choosing the options you would like to see on your home page. Your options will vary depending upon your role and security. Below is an example of what a faculty member may see.

