Reference Instructions:

The applicant named above is asking for your evaluation of his/her qualifications for the position of Peer Mentor in the University Studies Program (USP). Peer Mentors are a vital part of Quest I courses, providing a crucial link between the classroom, the campus, and the community. It is critical that the mentors are aware of campus resources, have excellent communication and interpersonal skills, and be outstanding role models. As representatives of the University and the USP, they are vital to the success of the program. Please give a realistic evaluation of this applicant’s strengths and weaknesses, cooperativeness, initiative, trustworthiness, and potential.
