

Spring 2019

University Staff Professional Development Day

“Smile and Give Someone Superpowers” Adam Bellcorelli - Keynote Speaker 2019

Adam Bellcorelli, former UWO LTE Staff, former UWO Academic Staff, former UWO Residence Life Spouse (still the spouse part), former Evans Hall Dad, former UWO Career Services Grad Assistant, current Operations Catalyst with Change Management Communications Center, and all around cheerful guy will be the University Staff Day Keynote Speaker. After his smash hit TedX Oshkosh experience, Smile and Give Others Superpowers, Adam realized that the stage fright didn't kill him and he had more fun stories to share, so he agreed to join us. Adam will be telling the stories from his life, the words of wisdom that give him perspective, the unique struggles and opportunities that have allowed him to shine a light on others' strengths, and the value of appreciating each chance we get to connect with one another. Adam also shares stories of how important everyday leadership is to us, to our community, and for creating the greater world we want to see.

USPDD 2019 Workshops

Combined AM Session – 9:15 am – 11:30 am

Planting Around Campus

Presenter: Lisa Mick

This workshop is still a work in progress. It may be a vegetable or flower planting or it may be a new install of a perennial bed. The possibilities are endless! Come join us and plain the soil. Gloves and tools will be provided. If it should dare to rain, we will take a virtual walk of the campus talking about our edible attributes and other ecological plants.

Session 1 – 9:15 am – 10:15 am

Difficult People

Presenter: Stephanie Bellin

Dealing with a coworker who may have a communication style that's challenging for you is common in the workplace. We all have to deal with people with different backgrounds, communication styles and habits we may find difficult. This seminar will help you learn how to cope with these individuals in the healthiest manner possible and how to take care of your own needs while learning to more effectively work with others.

U.S. Coin Collecting – Tips and Tricks

Presenter: Erik May

Learn about the hobby of collecting coins. Develop your knowledge of the history of U.S. circulated coins; how to get started, what to collect and where to find collectible coins. What are your coins really worth? What about foreign coins? Feel free to bring your own coins.

Session 2 – 10:30 am – 11:30 am

Active Threat Response

Presenter: Captain of Police – Chris Tarmann

In this workshop we'll share statistics for Active Threat situations in the U.S., provide information about how to be proactive and provide a brief training on how to react to an Active Threat situation

De-Stress Now!

Presenter: Theresa Spoehr

Come learn how to de-stress quickly, using easy to learn techniques that you can use yourself and teach to your students.

Essential Oils – Limit 36 participants

Presenter: Kelly Tarmann

We will be learning how you can replace many of the cleaning and personal care products in your home for natural options!

Session 3 – 1:45 pm – 2:45 pm

OneDrive Basics – Limit 42 participants

Presenter: Laura Knaapen

Learn the basics of logging in to Office 365 and using OneDrive for file storage. This includes creating folders, moving files and sharing files with others. We'll also briefly touch on using Word Online.

Creating a High Energy Healthy Snack

Presenter: Kate Harrell

Learn to create a healthier, high energy and longer lasting energy snack to get you through the workday. We will discuss the best pairings of foods and then work to create, together, some healthy snacks you can use moving forward to get through your workday.

Beginning Martial Arts

Presenters: Stacey and Charles Skoning

Come dressed to move. You will learn some basic attacks (hands and feet), blocks and escapes through individual and partner work as we explore the basics of taekwondo and hapkido. Signed waivers will be required to participate.

University Staff Donates to Newly-Created OSA Food Pantry on Campus!

Bring unexpired, non-perishable food items along with you to this year's USPDD. We are donating to this worthy cause and hope that you'll find something to donate. Drop off at the Registration table on the morning of USPDD. Thank you for your help!

Unexpired, non-perishable items including:

Soup, stew or chili
Canned fruits and vegetables
Peanut butter
Granola bars
